

Cayman Watercolours Charitable Trust

Tiana Bush - Corner Beach

Tiana Bush is a Caymanian artist who works mainly in Acrylic Paints but has expertise in many areas, having studied everything from Sculpture to Fine Art. She holds a bachelor's degree in art from the University of North Carolina at Asheville, and while completing her bachelor's degree, Tiana also received her K-12 Teacher's Licensure. Tiana has had four paintings exhibited in Cayman Art Week over the years. She Currently works full time as the Subject leader of Art at St. Ignatius Catholic School. Tiana enjoys painting in a realistic style in an attempt to capture and cherish life's natural beauty, especially the beauty of the Cayman Islands.

"Corner Beach" is a simple yet classic image capturing the shoreline along South Sound, an area celebrated for being both peaceful and secluded. A little slice of paradise.

