

Cayman Watercolours Charitable Trust

Hayley Cloete - The Botanicals

Year 13 Art and Design A Level Student, Cayman Prep and High School

My name is Hayley Cloete. I am a fine artist who enjoys working with acrylic paints and watercolours. I am inspired by nature and the textures found in different environments. For this painting, I studied local wildlife, including the bananaquit bird and the Cayman Islands' national flower, the banana orchid, merging them to create this final piece.

