Deborah Kern - Floral Parrot

Originally from Lincolnshire in the United Kingdom, Deborah studied Art Foundation at Loughborough University, Animation at Staffordshire University, and her PGCE at Cambridge University. In 2016 she won the poinciana award for best abstract painting.

Deborah is also 1/3 owner of the modern ceramic collective called 3 Girls and a Kiln that creates beautifully customised ceramic pieces for individuals, hotels, restaurants and galleries.

Inspiration for this year's painting:

I was inspired to create this painting as a celebration of the incredible flora and fauna found throughout the Cayman Islands. I wanted to bring together the vibrant colours, tropical plants, flowers and native wildlife that make Cayman so unique, creating a piece that captures the beauty and character of our island home.
